

Character-Based Literacy Program Assessment

Paper Towns, Final Assessment

Directions: Choose the letter representing the best answer for each question.

Name:

Date:

Period:

1. Why does Margo use random capitalization?

- ☐ Capitalization rules are unfair to words in the middle.
- ☐ Cool people do not follow capitalization rules.
- ☐ Random capitalization is original and creative.
- ☐ Capitalization rules represent institutions.

2. At the end of Chapter 6, when Quentin says “I was wrong,” what does he refer to?

- ☐ Quentin thought that Margo was cheerable.
- ☐ Quentin thought that Margo would come back for him.
- ☐ Quentin thought that if he were more confident, Margo would join his lunch table.
- ☐ Quentin thought that Margo will never come back.

3. How did Margo bring up Quentin's vengeful side?

- ☐ She made him remember the times Chuck Parson hurt him.
- ☐ She listed the benefits of vengeance.
- ☐ She promised to sit at his lunch table.
- ☐ She threatened to skip the last parts of her plan.

4. What happened when Margo tried to cross the moat at SeaWorld

- ☐ She got caught by a guard.
- ☐ She spotted an alligator.
- ☐ She got into a fight with Quentin.
- ☐ She got bitten by a snake.

5. When Margo used the phrase "sleeps with the fishes" in her messages, what literary device was she using?

- ☐ A metaphor
- ☐ An irony
- ☐ A pun
- ☐ An allusion

6. In the sentence “I was incontestably in love with her,” what does incontestably mean?

- ☐ Competitively
- ☐ Allegedly
- ☐ Famously
- ☐ Undeniably

7. In the sentence “This fear bears no analogy to any fear I knew before,” what does analogy mean?

- ☐ Metaphor
- ☐ Resemblance
- ☐ Comparison
- ☐ Difference

8. In the sentence, “On each calendar, it is perpetually February of 1986.” What does perpetually mean?

- ☐ Temporarily
- ☐ Incidentally
- ☐ Eternally
- ☐ Peculiarly

9. In the sentence “I couldn’t fathom how he could be both an auditory and a visual presence in my life.” What does fathom mean?

- ☐ Understand
- ☐ Measure
- ☐ Ghost
- ☐ Gauge

10. Why did Margo leave the clues?

- ☐ She wanted her friends to find her.
- ☐ She wanted Ben to have an adventure.
- ☐ She wanted her parents to find her.
- ☐ She wanted to revenge her friends’ betrayal.

After Submitting the quiz, you will not be able to change your answer. Please review before submitting.

Submit